4TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

In their synagogue was a man with an unclean spirit; he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are—the Holy One of God!" Jesus rebuked him and said, "Quiet! Come out of him!"

From Fr. Godfrey

- THANK YOU. Again, thank you to so many people who wished me a happy birthday. As life would have it, I got a viral infection the morning of my birthday. What a way to celebrate 58! Thank you to the priests who filled in for me while I still had a fever.

- LOTS GOING ON. Last week we celebrated Christian Unity Week and also the day of prayer for the legal protection of the unborn. Some might think they're not really related. But in my mind, our respect for all human life is the foundation stone of who we are as Christian disciples. So while we may not agree with other Christian denominations, we have the obligation to be respectful. And respecting the unborn enough to see that they have the right to life: founded on respect. Every day we're called to be people of profound respect for every other person.

- LESS IMPORTANT RESPECT. I'm really amazed at the number of people who leave Mass right after Holy Communion or before the closing song. We all know that in the old days, that wouldn't have flown! Who doesn't need a blessing? It's strange: some people who always leave before the blessing want a blessing for a rosary or before a surgery. Let's think about what we're doing and stay for the whole Mass, especially when it only lasts 45 minutes! Thanks for considering this.

- LENT begins on February 14, Ash Wednesday. Next week, we'll have all sorts of opportunities listed for Lenten growth. Please check the bulletin next week. (And since Ash Wednesday is a day of Fasting and Abstinence from meat, you may want to celebrate Valentine's Day a day early or a day late.)

PRAYING FOR SEMINARIANS

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and for the monks of Saint Meinrad in formation. Each week, I'll list one of them in the bulletin here, with an address, so that if you're inclined, you might drop them a note of support. At the very least, maybe one Hail Mary for each one each week would be helpful. For this week...

OUTREACH

Cathedral parishioners are called to look beyond our own needs—to our neighborhoods, our city, our diocese—and to all the worlds.

FORMED

Often young parents may wonder if they're getting all they can from the Mass. Getting yourselves and the kids ready, going there, keeping an eye on the unruly ones, and taking it all in can be challenging to say the least. The temptation to give in, and just not go, is ever present. If this describes your family's Sunday morning, and your weekly excursion through the Mass, you're not alone. Look into this new offering from FORMED.org titled "The Catholic Parent," and you'll see that you're in good company—regardless of the turmoil of getting there, you're meant to be there. What might be perceived by some as mayhem, Jesus sees as families carrying out their role as Catholic parents, raising your children in the way of the Church—Jesus wants you there, and misses you when you aren't. I think all families, those who are currently, and those who have already, raised their family will enjoy and learn from "The Catholic Parent" find it at: <https://watch.formed.org/the-catholic-parent> or scan the QR code featured on the right.

VOCATIONS

"Though I was raised in a Catholic family and blessed with good priests throughout my life, the priesthood did not attract me when I was young. In fact, during college, I didn't even practice the faith. The Lord eventually led me back to the Church, and when he began to call me to the priesthood, I was both terrified and excited. He was asking me to sacrifice my will and to trust and follow him. This meant breaking up with the girl I was dating and placing my desires for fatherhood and family into his hands. Had I been called when I was younger, I wouldn't have been mature enough in my faith to answer with the generosity and trust that let me to the priesthood."

Father Jonathan Schnobrich, Diocese of Burlington, Vt. Columbia Magazine October 2020

World Day for Consecrated Life is celebrated on Feb. 2nd (observed in parishes Feb. 3-4).

The Diocese of Belleville is hosting an informational meeting for men (and their spouses) who are interested in the Permanent Diaconate.

Saturday, February 3, at 10:00 AM in the Undercroft of the Cathedral of St. Peter

The Office of Permanent Deacon is considering another new class of aspirants starting in the fall of 2025. Eligibility is extended to men who have reached the ages thirty-three (33) to fifty-six (56) by September 2025. Men older than fifty-six may still apply but require special approval from the Deacon Formation Office and the Bishop.

The formation process is a five-year commitment, including academic studies conducted by St. Meinrad School of Theology, spiritual direction, and learning about the deacon's role. Participants are required to attend a three-day meeting once per month over the course of the five-year program. Interested individuals should first discuss their interest with their pastor. For those unable to attend the initial meeting, another session will be scheduled later.
