From Fr. Godfrey

-EXULTANT CHURCH. Almost every day in the Easter liturgy, we hear the phrase "exultant Church." We are to exult precisely because of the resurrection. It doesn't mean that we have to look "plugged in" or

"electrified," but it does mean that the fact of the resurrection impacts our living. He is risen. And one day, so will we be. Let's take a moment this week and ask ourselves what areas of our lives have not yet heard about the glory of the resurrection this year. May the joy of the Risen Lord sustain us always.

-VOCATIONS. Last weekend was World Day of Prayer for Vocations. Let's recommit ourselves to prayer for openness in young members of the Church to serve with gladness. And along with praying, how about encouraging a young person in the parish to consider this very rewarding way of life?

-THANK YOU. As our second graders receive their first Holy Communion and graduation is only days away, we have reason once again to be grateful for their faith, for their parents who are their first teachers in the faith, and for all those who have taught them and supported them along the way. God bless you all for passing on the great gift of genuine faith.

-THANK YOU again to all who worked so hard in the Dinner Auction for Notre Dame Academy. What a fun evening and it was a grand success. Thanks to all.

PRAYING FOR SEMINARIANS

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and for the monks of Saint Meinrad in formation. Each week, I'll list one of them in the bulletin here, with an address, so that if you're inclined, you might drop them a note of support. At the very least, maybe one Hail Mary for each one each week would be helpful. For this week...

This is an important week for our 2nd graders in the Parishes' School of Religion. Students from St. Augustine and Cathedral of St. Peter will be making their First Holy Communion this weekend at the Cathedral of St. Peter. May they receive Jesus many times in their life of faith. Let us remember them in prayer.

We do have class on Sunday, April 28 from 8:45 – 10:10 A.M. and on Wednesday, May 1 from 6 – 7:30 P.M. The goal of parenting isn't to create perfect kids. It's to point our kids to the perfect God. (Lindsey Bell)

VOCATIONS

“I grew up in a Byzantine-Ruthenian Catholic family in Pennsylvania and attended a Roman Catholic high school where some of the most joyful teachers were Sisters of Christian Charity. Every year, the school held a Forty Hours devotion that included all-night adoration, praise and worship, and a Eucharistic procession. During these powerful days, I experienced Jesus’ unique and personal love for me, and I felt drawn to give myself to him as a Sister of Christian Charity. Visiting the sisters, I had learned about their foundress, Blessed Pauline von Mallinckrodt. Mother Pauline’s devotion to the Mother of God and to the Blessed Sacrament also resonated with me. Entering the motherhouse chapel for the first time, I saw two familiar sights: an icon of Our Lady of Perpetual Help and Jesus on the altar during adoration. I knew I had found the place where I belong.

RESPECT FOR LIFE

“Virgin of Guadalupe, Patroness of unborn children, we implore your intercession for every child at risk of abortion. ... Guide our public officials to defend each and every human life through just laws. Inspire us all to bring our faith into public life, to speak for those who have no voice. We ask this in the name of your Son, Jesus Christ, who is Love and Mercy itself. Amen.”
