6TH SUNDAY OF EASTER

“It was not you who chose me, but I who chose you and appointed you to go and bear fruit that will remain, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name he may give you. This I command you: love one another.” - Jn 15:16-17

From Fr. Godfrey

— EASTER. This is the sixth week of Easter. We're nearing the end of this 50-day season. The resurrection of Jesus helps us realize the impact of NEW LIFE on Him and on us. If we were each pressed today by someone about what new life we have experienced this Easter season, how would we respond? The Christian life of conversion, which is an everyday commitment for disciples, brings new life. The forgiveness of sins brings new life. The reconciliation of sinners brings new life. And in one way after another, Jesus raises us from the death of our sin and sorrow. Today, let's embrace the new life Christ brings us in the light of the resurrection. And let's share that new life exultantly in our daily living.

— THANK YOU to all who have shared faith with our eighth graders who celebrated the sacrament of Confirmation recently, receiving the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude, knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. And thanks as well to those who have prepared our second graders and Jordan for First Holy Communion. I have urged them all to stay close to the Lord. Our hospitality and encouragement will make that more likely!

— PASTORAL COUNCIL. The Pastoral Council has recently taken up the work of preparing a parish survey which will be sent to every parish household. Your input helps the parish answer your desires and needs, instead proceeding blindly. More to come...

PRAYING FOR SEMINARIANS

Please pray for our Diocesan Seminarians and for the monks of Saint Meinrad in formation. Each week, I'll list one of them in the bulletin here, with an address, so that if you're inclined, you might drop them a note of support. At the very least, maybe one Hail Mary for each one each week would be helpful. For this week...

VOCATIONS

"As a teenager, I struggled to find my identity and purpose. I had a loving family and great friends, and I was a motivated student, yet I felt lost and empty. I had this gnawing desire to be whole.

Everything changed when I encountered the Lord at a confirmation retreat. He spoke to my deepest desires, and for the first time, I felt at home with myself and the world. At the foot of the cross, I discovered that I am loved and known from all eternity. That same gaze of Christ crucified now calls me to respond to his love with love through the path of the holy cross."

RESPECT FOR LIFE

“The Lord says to us, ‘Do not fear: I am with you’ (Isaiah 41:10). He speaks these words not as one who merely observes our pain, but as one who experienced immense suffering.

And the very wounds that bear witness to his suffering indicate the essence of our identity and worth: we are loved by God. Reflecting on the healed wounds of the Risen Christ, we see that even our most difficult trials can be the place where God manifests his victory. He makes all things beautiful. He makes all things new.”

USCCB Secretariat of Pro-Life Activities, “Be Not Afraid”
NABRE © 2010 CCD. Used with permission.

In the case of weather emergency during Mass, the sacristan will advise the priest of the situation. The priest will then advise the congregants to seek shelter in the Undercroft. The ushers shall assist in directing congregants in seeking shelter. Once it is determined to be safe, congregants will be directed back the nave of the Cathedral or will be dismissed.
